

A Candidate Wants Justice.

QUINTETTE, Fla., March 27, 1900.
Editor Daily News.

Please permit space in your columns to show to the people of Escambia county the injustice done me by the Daily Journal of the 26th. The readers of that paper will observe the language used and the spelling of the words of an article to which the name of the undersigned appears.

It is plainly evident that the sole object of the Journal in thus producing my article was to make political capital out of it.

I understand that it is the practice of all honorable newspaper men to first prepare all manuscript handed in for publication before it is placed in type, as the best of people in the world sometimes make mistakes. However, in this case many words were purposely changed and spelled wrong after the manuscript was handed to the editor. I asked for the original manuscript, but was told that I could not see it. Therefore, the people will judge for themselves. The citizens of Escambia county know me and know the Journal, and everything that paper does politically may not be gospel.

Respectfully,
CHARLES WILLIAMS.

A Night of Terror.

"A fearful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave George Barnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Croup, Croup, and Lung Disease. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles at W. A. D'Alemberte's drug store.

Attend Falk's opening tomorrow, Thursday and Friday.

PERSONALITIES.

M. Isopy, Lamartine's barber, is still alive in France at the age of 92.

Bird S. Coler, comptroller of New York city, is a prominent worker in a Methodist Episcopal Sunday school.

George Gould is said to be, with his sister Helen, the most democratic member of his family, a thing which has considerably shocked the Castellanes.

John Percival Smith is the smallest man in the United States army. He is stationed at Columbus, O., is five feet in height and weighs 105 pounds.

President Steyn of the Orange Free State first met Miss Frazier, who became his wife, on board ship when she was 12 years old, and their romance began at that time.

The little daughter of Harry and Alice Haver, Charlotte Genevieve, of Franklin, Me., could boast of five living grandmothers among her ancestry if her infant lips could frame the words.

Casimir Zaleski, who died in Warsaw the other day, was the oldest lawyer and newspaper editor in Poland. He was also noted for receiving the largest fee ever given a Polish lawyer—$100,000 roubles.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Richard of Plainfield, N. J., was married recently. When the bride cut the cake, she found on the bottom of it a tag containing $1,500, which had been contributed by parishioners.

Emiliasador Chouteau was recently asked by a distinguished English nobleman, "To what station in your country does Mr. Vanderbilt belong?" He answered, "To the Grand Central station, New York."

Miss Annie Peck, the woman mountain climber, wears in her trips above the clouds a man's suit of duck canvas, with leggings of the same material and stout boots of the regulation mountaineer description.

Lord Dundonald, one of the heroes of the Acton Homes fight in South Africa, has a curious notion that a military peer should never take part in the debates of the house of lords while holding the queen's commission, and he never broke his rule.

Sir William Walrond, the chief "whip" of the present British ministry, has as his chief duty to watch the attendance of the house of commons so as to know whether, if a division comes, he will have enough men to give the government a majority.

Thomas Yates of Toledo is the only American citizen who took part in the famous charge of the Light brigade at Balaklava. He was in the Seventeenth lancers and maintains that the charge was ordered out of Lord Lucan's insane jealousy of Lord Cardigan.

Henry Frick, whose suit against Andrew Carnegie is attracting much attention, is of Swiss descent. His father was a Swiss farmer, who lived in Westmoreland county, Pa. His mother was a German, a daughter of Abraham Oberholt, once a well known Pennsylvania distiller.
